- Make sure you do a little of this booklet every day, don't try to rush it in one go!

Alif to Ya little reminders

Cut out the letters attached and stick them below in the correct boxes (Colour them too!).

Yusr means ease. With every difficulty comes ease.	Karam is to be generous. We should be generous to others, so Allah blesses us with more.	Fadl means blessings. Allah has given us many blessings and he blesses whomever he wants.	Zill means Shadow. Young Muslims who listen to Allah will be in the shade of his throne in the hereafter.
Dhikr means to remember Allah. When we remember him, he remembers us.	Zamzam is the special water near the Ka'bah. Allah listens to prayers made after drinking this water.	Haya means to be modest. Being modest is part of good belief. We should be modest in the way we dress, speak and behave.	Salam is to say the words of peace. The closest to Allah is the one who says Salam first.
Iman is to believe in Allah. Whoever believes in Allah, will go to Jannah.	Rahmah means to have mercy. Allah has mercy on those who have mercy on others.	Dayf means our guests. We should always be kind to our guests.	Quran is the book of Allah. The best Muslims are those who learn the Quran and teach it.

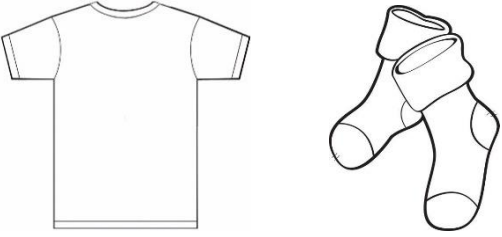

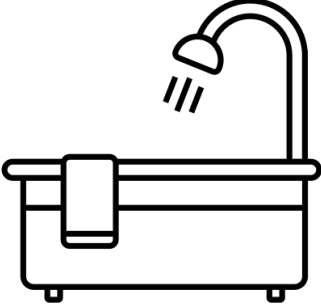

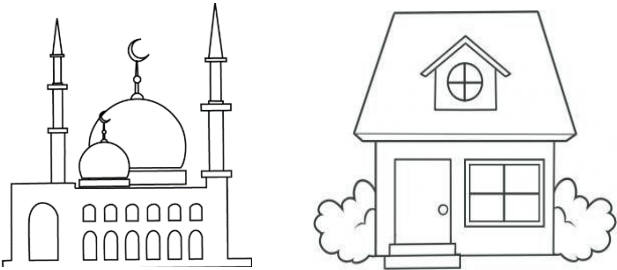

Maghfirah is to forgive. Allah forgives those who forgive others.	Walidayn means our parents. If our Parents are happy with us, Allah will be happy with us.	Shukr is to give thanks, the more we thank Allah, the more he will give us.	Nur means light. Good Muslims will have shining faces on the hereafter.
Taharah means to stay clean. Staying clean is half of faith.	Adl is to be fair. We should always be fair to others.	Thawab means good reward, Allah gives the best reward.	Dua means to pray to Allah. Allah answers us when we pray to him.
Khawf means fear. We do not fear anyone except Allah.	Bir means good Actions. The more good deeds we do, the more reward we will get.	Hidayah means guidance. Allah guides those who turn to him.	Ghayb means the unseen. Allah knows all: the seen and the unseen.
Lin means to be gentle. Muslims are always gentle and kind.	Taqwa means to be aware of Allah. He is with us wherever we are.	Jiran means our neighbours. We should always be kind to our neighbours.	Sadaqah means to give charity. Giving charity will never make us poor.

Keeping clean

Allah loves those who keep pure and clean.
