Directions: Each day of Ramadan, colour in one date. At the end of Ramadan answer this question insha'Allah: How many dates are under the tree?

and

Directions: How many parts of the date palm have numbers on them? Use the parts of tree on page 6 and glue the numbers on to the tree to match one another.

and

مَاذَا بَعْدُ؟

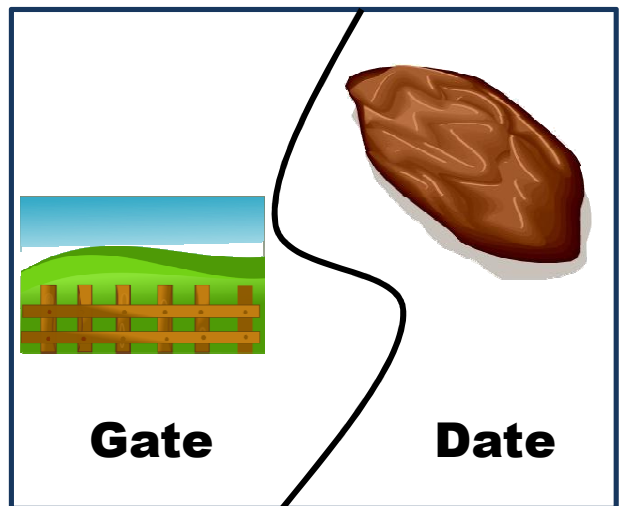

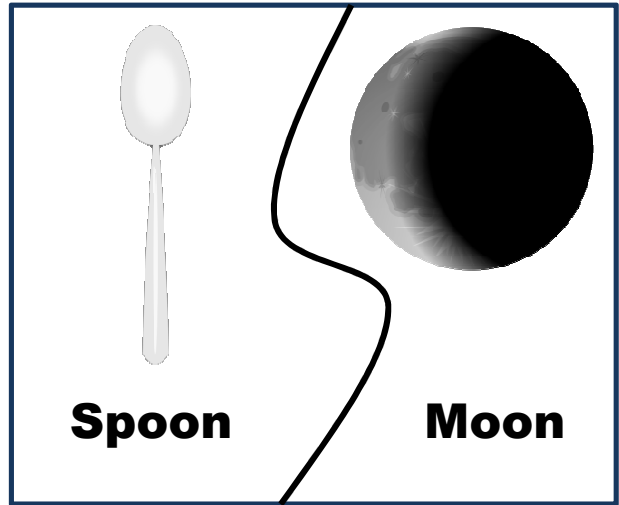

Cut and paste the picture that shows what comes next in the pattern.

Pictures for pages 4 and 5

Directions: Cut out the puzzles. Invite your child(ren) to put them back together again. The two words on the puzzle must rhyme with each other.

How to Play:

- 1). Print a game board for each player.
- 2). Print a set of cards for each player.
- 3). Cut all of the cards out, shuffle them and place them in a stack face down on the table.
- 4). Each player takes turns picking a card. If the card is one that they need on their board they put it in the correct spot. If it is not a card they need, they place it (face down) back in the stack.
- 5). The first player to fill their board wins the game.

How to Play:

1). Cut out the dates above.

2). Invite the child to place the correct number dates in the card on the right hand side to match the same number of dates shown on the card on the left hand side (i.e. the first card has one date so the child puts one date in the box/card that has the number #1 but no date).

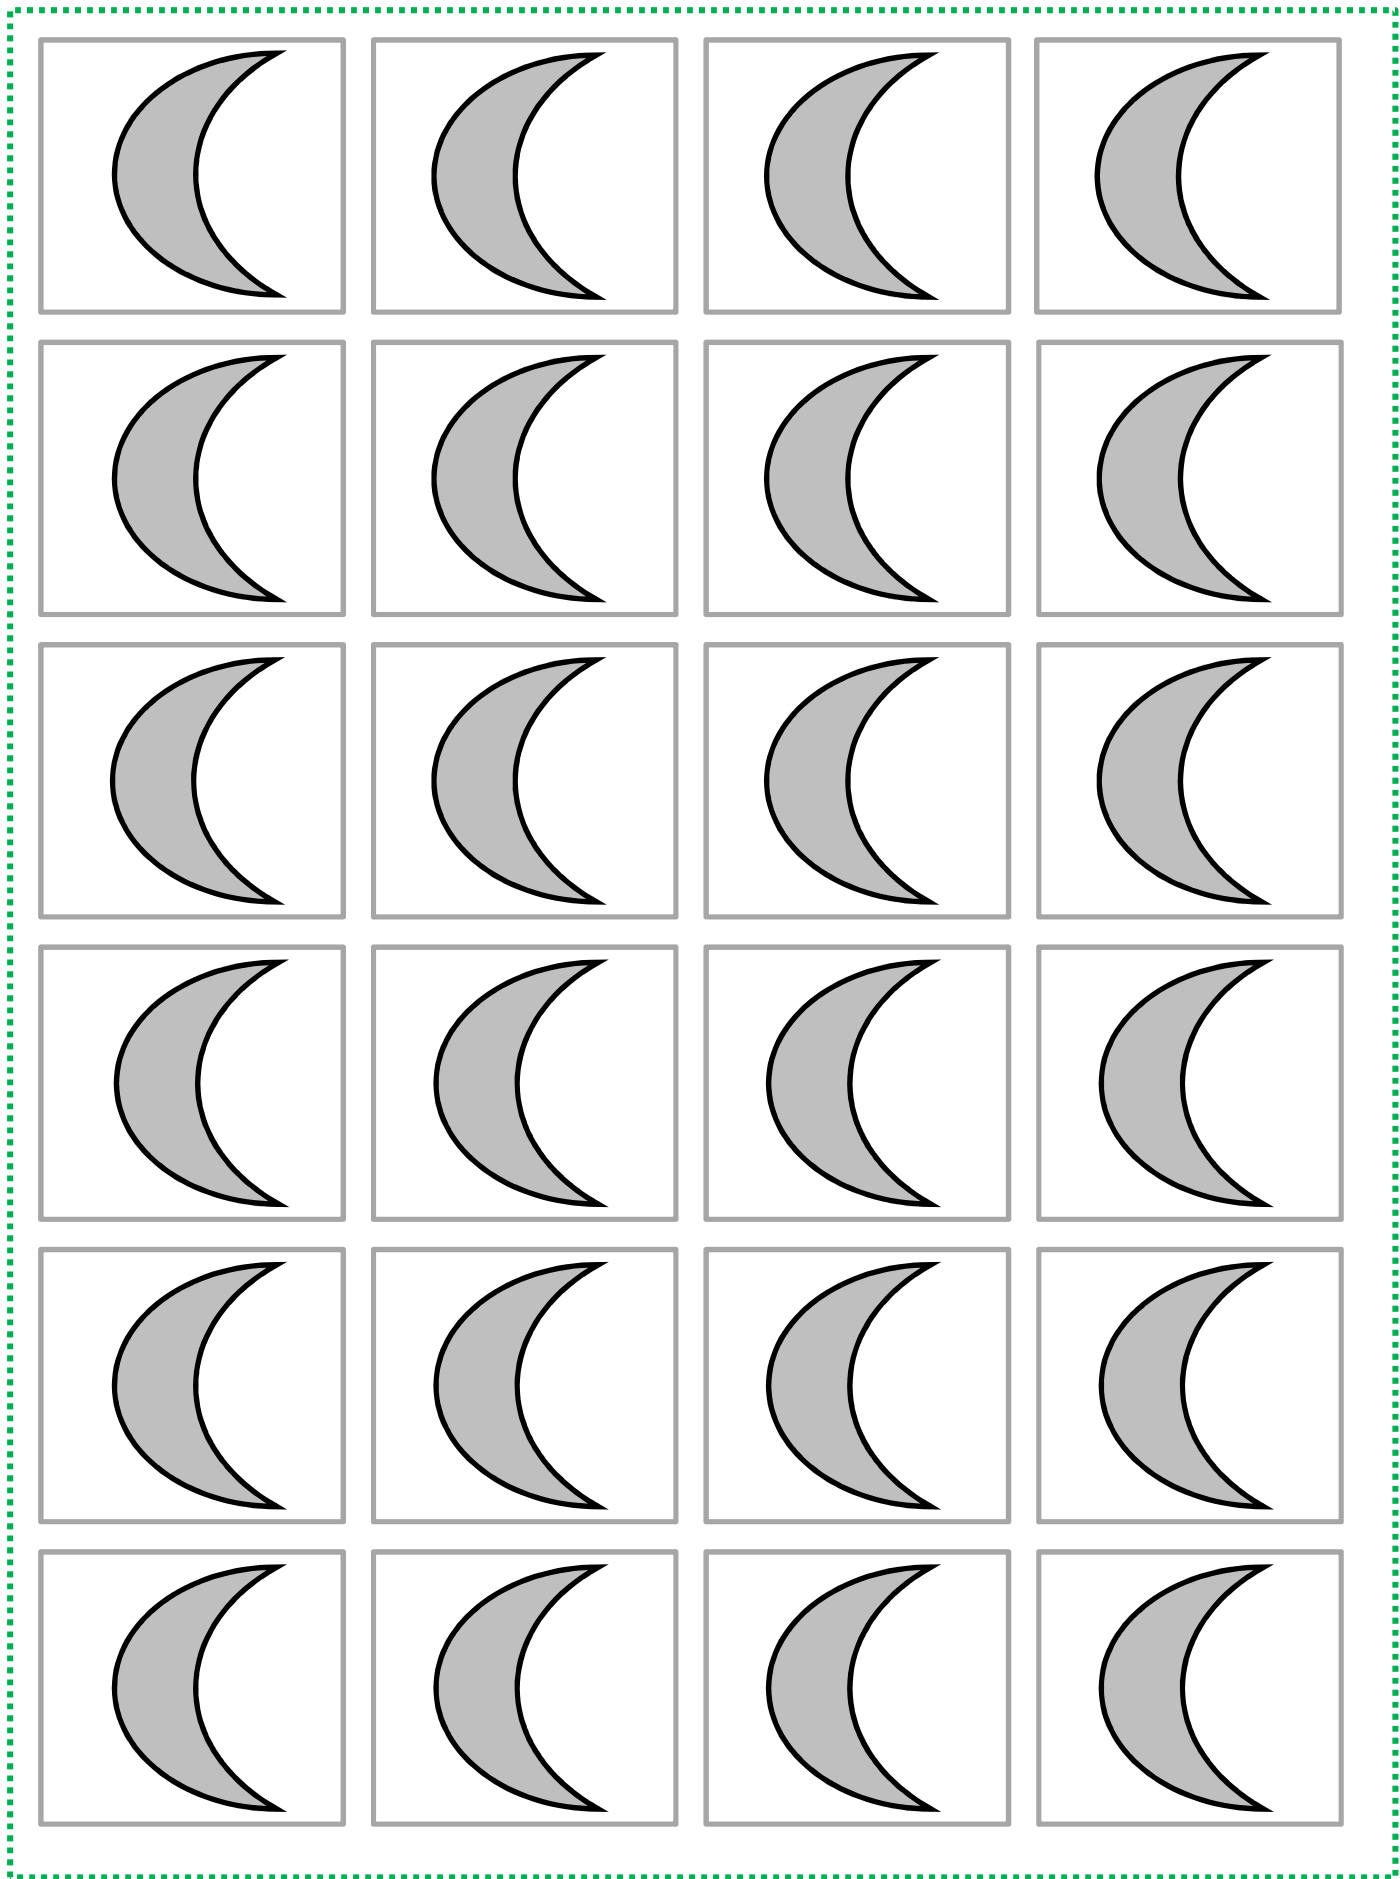

تُوْزِ رَمَضَانَ

Directions: Cut out all of the date and moon cards. Children line up the correct number of moons under the date with the corresponding number insha'Allaah (i.e. the date card with the number 2 should have two moon cards underneath it when lined up on the floor or table).

Find the Difference

Which sadaqah jar is different? How is it different?

Are all of the moons the same? Which is different? How?

Are all of the prayer rugs the same? Which is different? How?

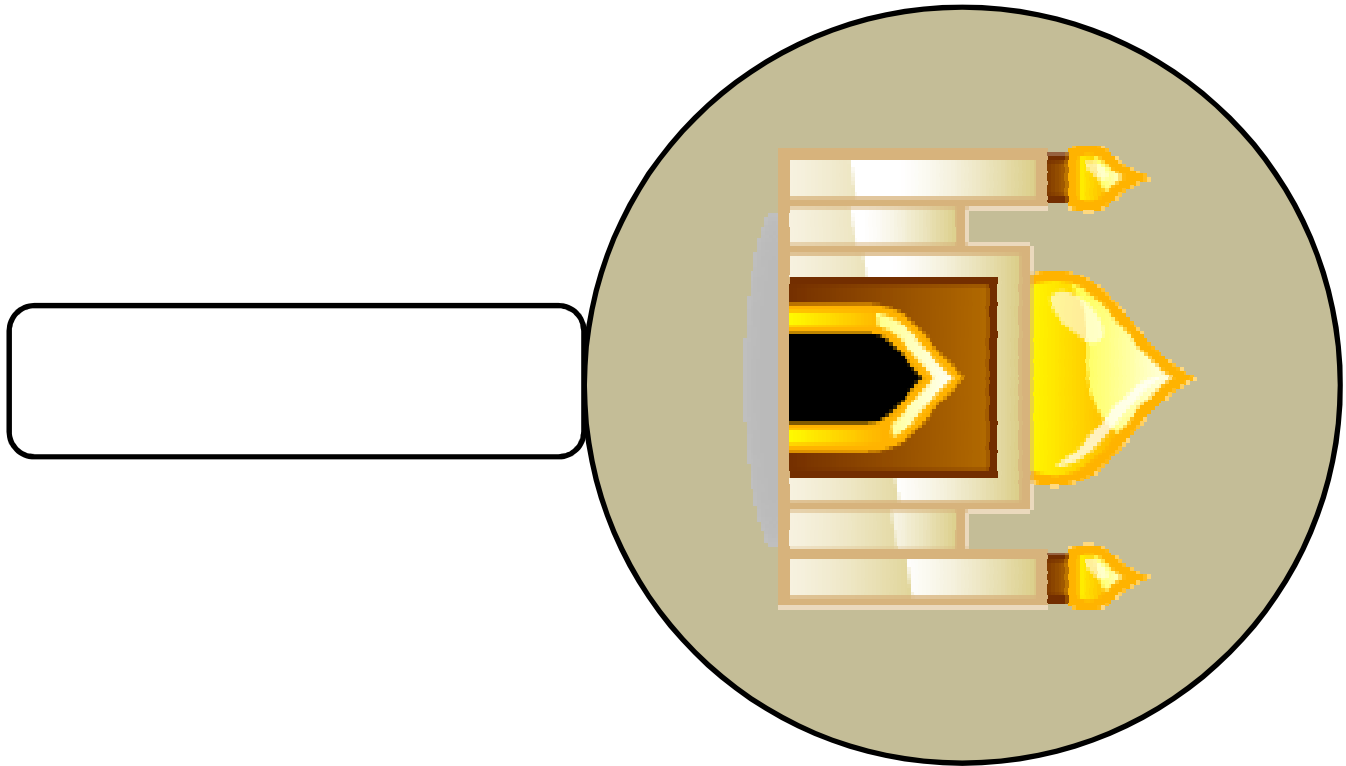

الأشكال في رمضان

Directions: Look at the shape in each box on the left hand side. In each row, look for the picture that shows an object that has that same shape. Circle it insha'Allaah.

Directions: Print the props out on cardstock. Cut them out and glue a large popsicle stick to the back for students to be able to hold them up easily insha'Allaah.

Read the following poem (below) to children. When you read the words/sentences highlighted in red, have each child hold up the appropriate prop. If you print this poem on to chart paper in large letters, children may be able to following along easily and chorus read as well insha'Allaah.

This is the month for salat ul taraweeh,
We'll go to the masjid, my father and me

When the prayer starts, I won't play nor turn 'round
And when I hear the takbir, I won't make a sound (have children shake their heads 'no' and put their finger to their lips and be very quiet)

I'll listen very quietly, as much as I can
To the Speech of Allaah, the Glorious Quran!

and

Cut out the calendar and using the tags on the next page, try to complete each of the good deeds mentioned. When you've done one of the good deeds, glue the tag on to the day that you did it. You do not have to do the good deeds in the order they are given.

Let's Invite....!

Ramadan is a special time when Muslims do many good deeds and help each other. One way of helping each other is by sharing things that you have. Pretend you are inviting the families of two of your friends for Iftar. This a way to share with other Muslims. Complete the two invitations and fill in the information that is needed. Mail your invitation and have fun at Iftar!

الإفطار

It's time to break the fast! Can you help get to the dates and cup of water?

Start

Finish

Iftar Treat: Fried Dates

Remember: Cook only with parental supervision!

Ingredients:

- At least a handful of dates with the stones removed (If the dates are quite dry soak them for a while in water to rehydrate them).
- A little oil or butter/margarine 1-2 tablespoons just to coat the bottom of a small frying pan.
- Some toasted sesame seeds, chopped nuts or desiccated coconut.

Directions/Preparation:

- ✓ Warm the dates with the oil and mash them together until they start to fry a little and start to smell slightly caramelized. Don't overdo it or the dates will burn and become hard and crunchy.
- ✓ Tip the hot dates into the serving dish and sprinkle with the chopped nuts to decorate.

You can leave the dates as they come out of the pan or smooth over with a knife and you will find that you can get a lovely shiny and smooth texture.

Eat with a spoon or your fingers.

N.B. Be careful not to burn yourself - the dates become very hot due to the high sugar content.

and

الإفطار

The time of Iftar is here alhamdulillah. Glue on or draw foods on to the plate that your family may eat for iftar insha'Allaah.

and

Using the foods on the next page, sort the foods into two stacks: foods we might have at iftar and foods we most probably should not eat for iftar (maybe after or another time insha'Allaah)

Foods that are not good (healthy) to eat for iftar and are better left for another time insha'Allaah.	Foods that are good (healthy) to eat for iftar

الإفطار

Use these foods for the iftar activity on the previous pages (print this page twice).

Draw food in the two empty boxes.

الإنجاز

Directions: Cut out the puzzles. Cut along the black lines and the white dotted line (for the moon). Invite your child to complete the puzzles insha'Allaah.

Directions: Help your mother prepare sweets for iftar. Decorate the cookies with the 'chips' on the page after the cookies insha'Allaah!

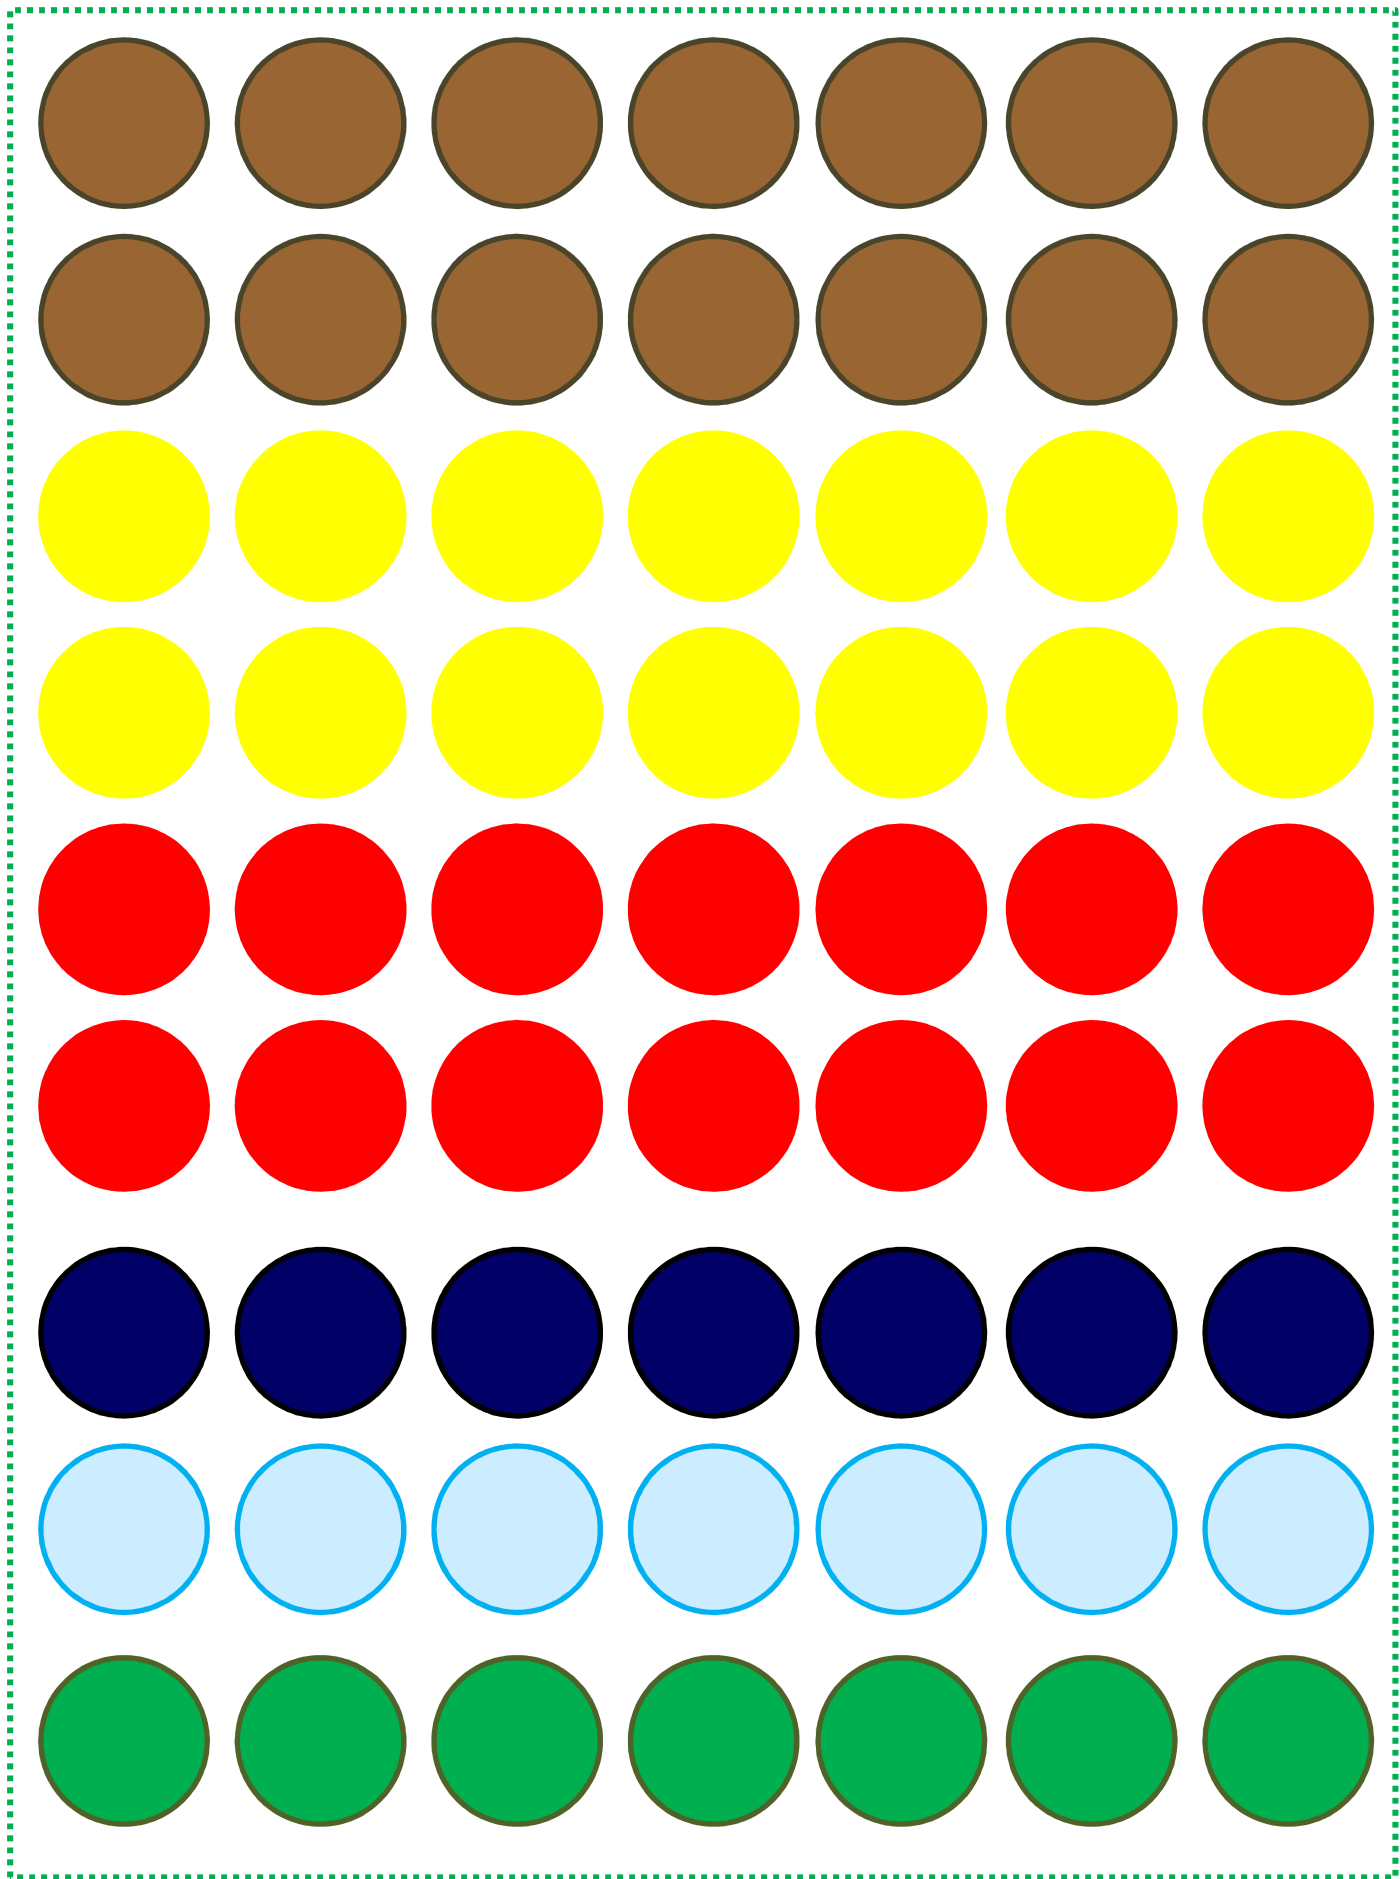

الإفطار

Directions: How many objects are on each card? Use a clothes pin or do-a-dot marker to show your answer.

Directions: Cut out the hearts and match each one to the correct letters on the mat on page 46.

Directions: Cut out the moons and match each one to the correct number on the mat on page 48.

Directions: Draw a line to match the prayer rugs that are the same colour.

Directions: Colour all of the hexagons that have the letter 'ra' in them.

A large rectangular grid composed of 20 green-outlined hexagons arranged in 5 rows and 4 columns. Each hexagon contains a single Arabic letter. The letters are: Row 1: ر, ر, ر, ر; Row 2: ر, ر, ر, ر; Row 3: ر, ر, ر, ر; Row 4: ر, ر, ر, ر; Row 5: ر, ر, ر, ر. The letters are all in a stylized, bold black font.

Directions: Print the cards on cardstock. Cut them out and invite children to put the prayer rugs in order from smallest to largest and then from largest to smallest.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ

Ramadan Plans

What would you like to do during Ramadan? What type of good deeds will you try to do? Draw a picture of your plans on each of the post-its below and write a word or sentence that describes your picture.

Directions: Look at the picture below with your child. Invite him/her to notice things in this neighbourhood. Ask questions such as, “what is growing in the yard of the masjid?” or “What is across the street from the masjid?”

Draw a picture of the masjid where your family will pray during Ramdan insha'Allaah.

Draw a line to match each person/object to the object on the left hand side.

Draw a line to match each boy with the correct thoub. Use the kufi of each boy to help you.

Ramadan Flashcards: Use the flashcards to teach baby or child new words related to the month of Ramadan.

الْقُرْآن

How was your Ramadan? Draw a picture and write a sentence that describes your Ramadan.

A large rectangular box with a solid black border, divided into three horizontal sections. The top section is the largest and is intended for drawing. A solid horizontal line separates the top section from the middle section, which is intended for writing a sentence. A dashed horizontal line separates the middle section from the bottom section, which is also intended for writing.

What do you want to do for Eid? Draw a picture and write about it insha'Allah.

The Eid is close insha'Allaah! Make a list of gifts you would like to buy for two people insha'Allaah. Try to remember those who are needy.

Write the name of the person in this box.

Write the name of the person in this box.

Did you fast this Ramadan? A half day? Part of the day? Draw a picture about how it felt and write a word or sentence that tells about your picture.

Remember, Muslims should not draw pictures that have faces of humans or animals.

Two horizontal lines for writing: a solid top line and a dashed bottom line, with a solid bottom line further down. This area is intended for writing a word or sentence about the drawing.

Zakat al-Fitr! : Cut out the play money and practice paying Zakat al-Fitr.
