

Du‘ā’ Virtues – A Summary [1]

Reception

	Du‘ā’	Virtue
1	Kalimah of ‘Islām	Whoever says لا إله إلا الله before they die, will enter Jannah.
2	Before Starting Something	If you start a task in Allāh’s name, there will be blessings (Allāh’s help) in that task.
3	Before Sleeping	Whoever sleeps with Wuḍū’, an angel sleeps with him at night. When he wakes up, the angel makes Du‘ā’ to Allāh to forgive him.
4	Greeting a Muslim	If you greet a Muslim with اَسْلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ, you will receive ten rewards. If you greet with اَسْلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللهِ, you will receive twenty rewards. If you greet with اَسْلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ, you will receive thirty rewards.
5	When Thanking Someone	If you say جَزَاكَ اللهُ خَيْرًا to someone who has done a favour to you, you have thanked them properly - it is the best way to thank them.

Level 1

	Du‘ā’	Virtue
1	After Drinking Water	Allāh is pleased with the person who after eating or drinking something praises Him.
2	After Eating	Allāh is pleased with the person who after eating or drinking something praises Him.
3	When One Forgets to Recite the Eating Du‘ā’	If you forget to recite the eating Du‘ā’, Shayṭān eats with you. When you remember and then recite this Du‘ā’, Shayṭān vomits everything out.
4	Upon Waking Up	When we go to sleep, Shayṭān ties three knots on the back of our head. When we wake up, if we remember Allāh (by reading the Du‘ā’ when waking up), one knot is untied. If we make Wuḍū’, another knot is untied, and if we read Fajr, all the knots are untied.
5	Upon Mention of the Prophet’s ﷺ Name	1) Whoever sends one blessing on the Prophet ﷺ, Allāh sends ten blessings on him. 2) Whoever reads the most Ṣalawāt, will be the closest to the Prophet ﷺ on the Day of Judgement.
6	Kalimah Shahādah	1) On the Day of Judgement nothing will weigh heavier in the scales than the name of Allāh. 2) For reciting Kalimah Shahādah, a person will be forgiven and entered into Jannah.
